3 / I SHMUEL / I SAMUEL 1 / 1-6

B There was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim, from Mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, from the land of Ephraim. He had two wives: one's name was Hannah and the name of the second was Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. This man would ascend from his city from year to year to prostrate himself and to bring offerings to HASHEM, Master of Legions, in Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli — Hophni and Phinehas — were Kohanim to HASHEM.

C It happened on the day that Elkanah brought offerings that he gave portions to Peninnah, his wife, and to all her sons and daughters. But to Hannah he gave a double portion, for he loved Hannah and HASHEM had closed her womb. Her rival [Peninnah] provoked her again and again in order to irritate her, for HASHEM had closed

1. 1-8. Elkanah and his family. Elkanah was a Levite, a descendant of Korah (I Chronicles 6:7-12). He is the unnamed prophet who comes to Eli in the next chapter (2:27-36), and is one of only forty-eight male prophets whose prophecies were recorded for posterity (Megillah 14a, Rashi). Elkanah had two wives, Peninnah, who had many children, and Hannah, who was childless. Hannah, whose prayer in Chapter 2 was prophetic, was one of the seven women whose prophecies were recorded in Scripture (Eilat).

The leader of the nation was Eli, the Kohan Gadol, who was one of the greatest of the judges, but who presided over Israel at a time when the spiritual and temporal standing of the people had fallen to a low estate. Eli's predecessor was Samson and, as seen in the Book of Judges, the Philistines were ascendant at that time.

E 1. רַמְתַּיִם זֹפִתִים — Ramathaim-zophim. This place was named for its topographical characteristics. Literally the name means two heights looking (at one another); thus Elkanah lived on one of two hills, separated by a valley, that were opposite one another, so that a person standing on one hill could see the other one clearly (Rashi). Midrashically, the term describes the greatness of Elkanah: The letter resh of Ramathaim has the numerical value of 200, and the rest of the word zophim, can be read as seers, i.e., prophets. Thus, Elkanah is described as one of two hundred people who prophesied in his lifetime (Rashi, 15b, Mahariq).

2. הָיָה — was. The text indicates that Peninnah provoked her by a cloak today for your older child, "anger one?" The Sages say that Peninnah intended to goad her to one (Eli) — which indeed happened. Satan (in his accusations against her) was successful for the sake of Heaven (Bava Metzia 107a). The text notes that Peninnah is brackish epitome of evil, because good and evil tactics. Therefore Peninnah or eight of her ten children died.

DAVIS EDITION BAAL HATURIM CHUMASH

Dedicated by Yosef and Edie Davis

Where do you find the Torah's hidden messages? The Baal HaTurim found them in gematria (number patterns), acrostics, formations of letters, Scriptural word patterns, and a novel approach to understanding a verse. His Arba'ah Turim is the basis of our Shulchan Aruch. But Baal HaTurim, his brief Torah commentary, was written so tersely that even great scholars labor over it.

Now, after seven centuries, this masterpiece is explained, annotated, and broadened, making it accessible to scholar and layman alike. This new masterpiece has no equal in any language. It is simply dazzling!
Translation of Baal HaTurim by Rabbi Eliyahu Touger. Edited, annotated, and elucidated by Rabbi Avie Gold.
